

BASILDON CE PRIMARY SCHOOL

NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents and Guardians,

This week our Pandas and Lemurs eagerly awaited the delivery of their Pringle parcels. There was much excitement as the classes opened their boxes and found out who had successfully designed packaging to protect their Pringle through the post. They celebrated this with a Pringle party.

Lion king rehearsals are now in full swing, the children are doing an amazing job getting to grips with some challenging music and lots of complex harmonies. We have a small group of very supportive parents who are working with the staff to create the costumes and scenery of the play; however, we desperately need some more helpers, you don't need to be arty just willing! Please email the office if you can give any time to this project.

Have a wonderful, hopefully sunny, restful half term.

Kind Regards,

Miss M Cliffe

Collective Worship

This week Reverend Will talked to us about
respect.

PARKING

There continues to be near misses due to
parking.

Please do not park on or near the entrance of School Lane.

School Lane is NOT a safe turning point.

Naming Uniform

Please make sure all uniform, especially jumpers, are named.
In warmer weather the children tend to take their jumpers off and leave them lying around, we do our best to return items,
but can't do this if it is not named.
